FINED FOR ASSAULT.

Row in Saloon in Northern Section of City Saturday Night.

Some excitement was caused in a saloon in the northern section of the city last Saturday night by a row which occured between several white men. Officers Campbell and Bell investigated the matter and this morning brought five men before the Police Court to answer the charge of disorderly conduct and fighting in a public place.

Three of the accused were dismissed, it appearing from the evidence that they were victims of assaults on the part of William Dudley and Ernest Hall, and the latter were fined $10 each.

FINED TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS.

George Brooks, Arrested on Charge of Lunacy, Convicted of Discharging Pistol.

George Brooks was brought before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of lunacy but the evidence showed that the prisoner's intellect was in no way inferior to that which he was enjoyed in by-gone years, and that he was guilty of causing unnecessary excitement in the neighborhood of his home and of discharging a pistol in the street at night.

Brook's defense was that he supposed somebody was about to burglarize his house.

Justice Caton imposed a fine of $25 upon the prisoner, and not having the necessary wherewithal he was turned over to the jail authorities.

ALLIES STEM TIDE OFGERMAN ARMY

French and British Soldiers Feel Weight of Invaders Assault

GENERAL BATTLE ON.

Attempts of Germans to Rebridge Meuse Fail—French an Offensive—Paris Quiet Today

Paris Sept. 1—Stubbornly holding the line from near Rheims to Le Fere which guards the valleys of the Oise and Aisne rivers, the combined French and British armies again today felt the whole weight of the German assault.

Four German armies, those of Grand Duke Albrecht, and Generals Von Klug, Von Buelow, and Von Hausen, are pounding at the French left flank, which has continued to crumple ever since the frontier was crossed by the German hosts.

These are the armies that have been assigned to besiege Paris, but so far have been unable to inflict a decisive defeat on the allied columns. The latter, in fact, are following out the agreed upon defensive plan, and as they slowly retire from position to position, carefully selected in advance, are inflicting enormous damage on the enemy.

In the center the army of the German Crown Prince has penetrated France through Luxemburg and the "Gap of Treves," and the "General battle" admitted in the official reports, is taking place in the Mezieres-Roeroi-region and along the Meuse to Verdun.

Up to the present, it is insisted here, all attempts of the Germans to rebridge the Meuse have failed They have now brought up heavy artillery and are shelling the entire line of French entrenchments that cover the Meuse in the vicinity of Sedan.

The French army in Lorraine continued today to act on the offensive. They have shoved the Germans back from their immediate front and the war office says that the successes here are material and important."

Paris was quiet today, although the exodus from the city continued

THEN AND NOW.

Paris of 1914 Different From Paris of 1870.

Paris Sept. 1.—Lieuteant Colonel Rousset, the military critic, writing for his paper, the Petit Parisiene, reassures those who may be frightened by the possible investment of Paris.

He declares, first, that in 1870 the capital was held for nearly five months under conditions much different than those of today.

Second, the Germans had a free disposition at least as far as Nanteuil-Sur-Marne, of the Strassburg-Paris through raiload lines while at present they have not yet been able to touch the eastern fortified frontier and have been driven back of Mortague north of Valenciennes.

Third, their sole line of communication which passes by Belgium is at this point so precarious that it can be destroyed in a moment.

The investment of Paris, he declares' if it should occur, would be nothing but "an immense bluff," and would soon be interrupted.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, with her children, arrived in England last night.

The British steamship Holmwood is reported to have been sunk by a German cruiser off the coast of South America.

A German aviator hovering over Paris at a great altitude about 4.30 p. m. yesterday dropped a bomb into the city. The projectile did not explode. This is the second bomb attack on Paris in two days.

According to official announcement made in Berlin, Lieut. Gen. Prince Frederick of Saxe-Meiningen was killed by a shell before Namur August 23. No news of the situation on the eastern and western fronts of Germany was given out yesterday.

The German Ambassador to the United States says that Germany already has won the war; that the aims of the Kaiser's general staff have been attained and that large numbers of the force operating against the allies may now be detached and sent to Prussia to cooperate with the Austrians against Russia.

With a chloroform soaked handkerchief tied across her mouth and an empty carbolic acid bottle on the floor beside her, the body of Mrs. Ivah Maria Halstead, a bride of less than two months, was found by her husband, Noble Halstead, an examiner in the patent office, when he reached his home, 4337 Luray place northwest Washington, yesterday evening. Mrs. Halstead was twenty years old, and came from Elkhart, Ind., as a bride on July 9. The only motive advanced by Halstead for the young wife's act is homesickness.

"Take Paris or die," is declared to have been the order issued by Emperor William to his troops when they entered upon the campaign. The dispatch says, there is a feeling among many German soldiers that they are fighting against too great odds. Despite all effort to conceal the news from East Prussia, it is stated, information of a disquieting character regarding events there is beginning to circulate among the German forces and this feeling of anxiety was intensified when two divisions, 80,000 men passed the Meuse by the bridge of Andenne, at Seilles, between Namur and Liege, enroute for Germany.

A leaflet based on an alleged statement in Japanese newspapers that Japan intends to make China a dependency was distributed in the street of Peking yesterday. It stated that every Chinese should sacrifice his life rather than accept domination by Japan. The police attempted to suppress the leaflet and arrest the distributors some of whom belong to the better class of Chinese. The government sent a circular to foreign embassies and legations yesterday calling attention to the return of revolutionists to China with the object of taking advantage of the present situation. The circular asks the legations to prevent revolutionists being harbored in the foreign settlements.

"FOLLIES OF THE DAY."

What Does the Public Want is the title of the attraction at the Gayety this week. The show itself is the best answer to the question. There is a little bit of everything inlected into the action of the piece a touch of pathos at the drop of the curtain at the end of the first act and a riot of fun during the rest of the show.

The show is brimful of catchy songs, humor and clever dancing.

Sam Sidon and Chester Nelson form a comedy team and are never at a loss to invoke a hearty laugh from their audiences.

The remaining contingent led by Gertrude Hays and Martha Stewart, is given little opportunity to "show off" but do their parts acceptably well.

The chorus is far above the average seen in a burlesque show, is unusually young and attractive and can sing and dance. It is given plenty to do and is on the stage most of the time, only being off long enough to make one of the fifteen changes of costumes worn during the performance.

BOTH NATIONS CLAIM VICTORY

Germany Alleges French and English Have Been Driven Back.

RUSSIAN INVASION.

Contradictory Statements Made in St Petersburg And Berlin—Irristible Advance on Gemany

Berlin. Sept. 1— (Via the Hague)—The war office statement today declares the French and English armies have been driven back with heavy losses near La Fere and that the German advance on Paris continues.

The operations all along the line of battle throughout France are characterized as "satisfactory" and it is stated the German forces under the Crown Prince, operating from near Longwy, have enjoyed uninterrupted success.

These announcements resulted in widespread rejoicing, coming simultaneously with the anniversary of the opening of the battle of Sedan.

So far as the situation in the eastern theater of the war is concerned it is stated the German situation is now excellent. The re-enforcements sent to aid the armies defending Eastern Prussia are now on the scene and have assumed the offensive.

Vienna (via Rome) Sept. 1.—In an ogicial statement issued by the Austrian war office today the battle now in progress along the Austrian-Prussian fontier is refeed to as the "geatest in the history of the world."

It is stated that already there are thee million men engaged in the active fighting. Every branch of the service is represented and the fighting tide ebbs and flows like that of the seas.

From a maze of contradictory Russian, German, and Austrian versions of the situation on the Russo-Austro-German frontier, the only fact uncontroverted is that there has been and is furious fighting through Austrian Galicia, Russian Poland and East Prussia, from Lemberg to the Baltic at Konigsberg.

Austria claims "decisive" success for her flying wedge driven into Russian Poland at Krasnik and Lubin, intended to split the Russian advance, Germany claims decisive defeats for the Russians.

From Russia come only assertions of an irresistible advance on Berlin

WILL FIGHT TO THE LAST.

Belgian King to Shoulder Rifle Himself if Necessary.

London, Sept. 1.—The correspondent of the Express at The Hague gives another version of the conversation between King Albert and Prime Minister De Broqueville when the King expressed a determination to fight to the last.

The incident occurred in Antwerp Saturday, when the King said to the prime minister in the pesence of the Queen.

"If necessary, you, my dear minister, and myself will take out our rifles and go to the field."

"So will I," said the Queen, "and all Belgian women will go with me."

An officer, who was wounded in the engagements in the north declares that without exaggeration the German casualties as compared with those of the allies bear a ratio of 20 to 1. This was due to the charges of massed infantry in an endeavor to break through the lines.

Richmond Sept 1—Judge J. M. Gregory formerly Commonwealth's Attorney for Chesterfield county has written a letter in defense of the principal of local self-government in which he announces his opposition to Statewid prohibition. He especially calls upon his comrades of the Confederate army to "honor and follow the sentiment of the crutch" which wolnds ni battle caused Judge George LL. Judge Gregory's standing in his home county and among all who know hmim is of the highest.

Dog's Head Examined in Washington by United States Authorities

About ten days ago a dog belonging to Joseph Clark residing on Franklin street, near Union, attacked a daughter of Raymond Grover living nearby and sunk its teeth into her. As is naturally the case, the paents of the girl were apprehensive and went to the authorities and swore out a warrant against the owner of the dog. The case came up in the Police Court, where the defendant was represented by H. N. Garner. Justice Caton ordered the animal to tbe killed, but an appeal was noted. The dog was in the meantime captured and locked up in the station house. Clark subsequently abandoned the appeal, the dog was killed and its head sent to the Agricultural Department in Washington where it was examined.

Dr E. A. Gorman, Health Officer of this city today received a communication from the chief of the pathological division, advising him that after a microscopic examination no indication of rabies infection could be found.

Two rabbits were inoculated with an emulsion of brain material and should they show signs of rabies the health department of this city will receive notification.

GUNNING SEASON OPENS.

Many Nimrods Hied Themselves to Marshes Today.

The hunting season began today, and by the time the sun was rising over the Maryland hills the reports of guns could be heard near this city.

Many reedbirds and other specimens of the feathery creation have been passing ever the city in flocks during the past week or two, and gunners anticipate a satisfactory season.

While according to law, the season did not open until today, numbers became impatient during the last days of August and many birds were killed before the advent of September.

ORGANIZATION OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

The new City Council met today in their respective chambers in the City Hall. The formalities incident to the advent of newly-elected city fathers varied in no particular with those of former years. There was no spirited competition for the positions of presiding officers and these were filled in the first ballots. In the Board of Aldermen Henry K. Field, former vice president, and chairman of the finance committee was elected President, and Howard W. Smith was chosen presiding officer of the Common Council, a position he formerly held.

There were no contests for the positions of clerk or messenger in either board. and those who have held the positions for several years succeeded themselves.

While the complexion of the City Council has passed through a marked transition during the present year, the places of five members having been taken by new timber, it is believed what is now the minority will vie with the majority in legislation which will be acceptable to the great mass of the community. The divergencies of opinion so often manifest in bygone years will doubtless be succeeded by a better understanding all around, and the business of the city will consequently be expedited.

The gentlemen composing the two boards of Council are all good democrats and. like faithful members of the organization. will bow to the will of the majority selected last May by the suffragans of the city.

It is an unfortunate fact that sometimes misguided men, realizing that they hold the cold end of the poker, make themselves unnecessarily mischievous but the personnel of those who will now control the deliberations of the city fathers are not men of that genus.

SIDESHOWS OF POLITICS.

It seems that the republicans and the "Bull Moosers" are bent upon the folly of placing candidates in the field in the Eighth Congrassional District. Such knights in the political ring, of course. have no idea of obtaining what might be regarded as a complimentary vote in this Gibraltar of democracy, and about the only end that can possibly be served is to impose an additional burden upon those whose duty it will be to tabulate the vote by elongating the ticket next November.

Republican candidates for Congress in the Eighth District since the defeat of Charles Whittlesey by Lewis McKenzie in 1869 have been as horseflies around the band wagon of the democratic organization. Often politically insignificant men have allowed themselves to be groomed by persons whose main object, it seemed was to make themselves prominent with the national party holding the reins at that time.

Of course the republicans know they have not the ghost of a chance in a race with Hon. C. C. Carlin, the present acceptable Representative in Congress in this district, who during the years he has filled the position has not only solidified his own party but made inroads into that of the republican organization many members of the latter being perfectly satisfied with his course.

In the face of these facts what encouragement a man who is an adherent of Theodore Roosevelt, of whom the country has long since grown tired, can have under existing conditions is hard to understand.

SUFFERINGS IN WAKE OF WAR.

General Philip H. Sheridan, towards the close of the civil war in America. is quoted as saying that he would make the beautiful Shenandoah Valley so desolate that a crow flying over the country would be compelled to carry its rations.

The titantic struggle now in progress in Europe is producing many sad pictures. Historic cities have been utterly destroyed, and homes of the humble classes representing the savings of a lifetime have nothing save blackened chimneys to show where they formerly stood. Houses in the country near Paris are marked for a similar fate. Not only will the poorer classes be called upon to sacrifice their all, but the mansions of the great will fall by reason of military necessity. The million dollar home of the Goulds will meet a fate similar to that of homes of peasants.

Police Sergeant B. F. Bettis who has been confined to his home by illness during the past five weeks, was able to report for duty this morning.

For a good many months I had trouble with my stomach and found it necessary to eat sparingly." writes Mrs. Bernice Wyandt, Lima, Ohio. "There was a dull and heavy feeling in my stomach after eating that was most uncomfortable. I was also annoyed by frequent headaches. After taking a number of medicines without benefit I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and found they were just the thing. Two bottles of them rid me of this complaint." For sale by all dealers.

THEN AND NOW

Principles Changed to Suit the Political Need of the Occasion

When Judge Mann ran for Governor in 1909, Dr. Cannon, Virginia Superintendent of the National Anti-Saloon League, with Headquarters at Westerville, Ohio, supported Him and His Local Option Platform.

To-day Dr. Cannon is denouncing Judge Christian for His Loyalty to a Principle which He Himself five years before indorsed.

Time—even such a short time as five years—plays havoc with a Political Preacher's Principles.

FOR LOCAL OPTION IN 1909, AGAINST IT IN 1914, WHERE IS DR. CANNON'S CONSISTENCY!

Lord Kitchener, Secretary of State for War, of England, announced in the House of Lords yesterday that in addition to reinforcements which would be received from this country, the government had decided that the British army in France should be further increased. The troops to increase the forces were now on the way, he said. He added that all the gaps in the army in France were being filled up. That the employment of native Indian troops was meant by Lord Kitchener was later confirmed by the Marquis of Crewe, Secretary of State from India.

THE FIXED IDEA

You want MONEY—you can HAVE it.—But you FIRST must get the Saving Idea.
